A WORLD
WITH LESS
JUDGMENT
AND MORE EMPATHY...

Dear Friends,

Despite the recent intimidation tactics and harassment, our doors stay open.

We are more determined than ever to ensure that our doors stay open, no matter what. You help us keep that promise.

Our patients come to us for birth control, STD testing, cancer screening, and abortion services. They come from all backgrounds and circumstances, looking for compassionate health care—and that's what they get from us every day.

You inspire us to always keep going, even in the face of unimaginable tragedy. Together, we will adapt and we will move forward. We will not be deterred.

We're here for those who need us most. We're non-judgmental. We're compassionate. We've been here for one in five women in this country.

The exciting investments you've supported this past fiscal year help women and young people live healthier lives. And, as we continue to innovate and anticipate the needs our community in the changing healthcare landscape, you ensure that family planning, abortion services and medically accurate education remain within reach of everyone, even those hardest to reach under the Affordable Care Act.

Thank you for standing tall and proud with us.

With gratitude,

Sheri Bonner
President & CEO

WHERE THE GAP IN HEALTH CARE
FOR ALL WOMEN
CLOSES
FOR GOOD...

To my Fellow Supporters,

As a physician working in the field of reproductive health, I know just how important Planned Parenthood services are to the community.

It is currently estimated that the United States economy loses more than $300 billion a year due to the costs of health disparities. And in the area of reproductive health, the stakes are especially high.

Women whose annual income is below 100% of the Federal Poverty Line, and thus make less than $12,500 a year, are five times more likely to have an unintended pregnancy than women making more than $50,000 per year.

Health disparities disproportionately affect women seeking abortions. As an example, across the globe, abortion rates are relatively similar by country. But where abortion is outlawed, maternal mortality rates are dramatically increased. And even where abortion is legal, such as the United States, barriers to access abortions throughout the country disproportionately impact women who are poor.

In my practice, every day I see first-hand the hurdles so many of my patients face when trying to access medical care of all kinds – from juggling child care to lacking a supportive partner or transportation to being unable to miss a day of work. And lack of knowledge and misinformation about reproductive health is all too common.

Planned Parenthood is here for these women. Planned Parenthood is here in fact for all women. One in five women has visited a Planned Parenthood in her life. This work would not be possible without you. Planned Parenthood cannot continue without people like you, standing for women, their health and equitable access for all.

Thank you for standing with Planned Parenthood,
